

Do you “like” AANN?

Expand your neuroscience nursing network and conference connections through AANN’s page on Facebook

Social media has become a prevalent aspect of attending a meeting and a great wealth of information can be garnered by participating on AANN’s Facebook platform during the Annual Educational Meeting. Attendees can leave and receive tips about particular speakers, post pictures, find other attendees and more!

Join AANN in our social media efforts by posting about your participation in the Annual Meeting to Facebook!

Be sure to “like” AANN’s page: facebook.com/neuronurses:

- Post quotes from your favorite sessions
- Comment on what you’re looking forward to in Boston
- Ask your colleagues a question
- Post the pictures you take on the wall
- Let fellow attendees and AANN members comment on your posts

Continue to encourage your fellow quality colleagues to join your social media discussion. The more participants, the more valuable the conversation!
