

Activating your Subscription to Journal of Neuroscience Nursing for the iPad®

A subscription to JNN includes six print issues per year, full online access to jnnonline.com including archived issues, and now exclusive access to the iPad App!

I am a subscriber to JNN and I have a username and password that I use to access 'jnnonline.com'

- On your iPad home screen, open the JNN app from the icon
- You will see the message, “If you have already set up JNN for your iPad, simply tap “Sign In” above to start accessing your issues. Or, set up your account.”
- Tap the “Sign In” button at the upper left using your username and password for jnnonline.com. Download, View, and Archive issues in your library

I am a subscriber to JNN and I have my subscriber ID (hint: your subscriber ID is found on your print mailing label or the email confirmation you received when you subscribed)

- On your iPad home screen, open the JNN app from the icon
- You will see the message, “If you have already set up JNN for your iPad, simply tap “Sign In” above to start accessing your issues. Or, set up your account.”
- Tap the “Or, set up your account” link
- On the next screen, choose: I know my Subscriber ID
- When you tap “I know my Subscriber ID,” you will be prompted to enter your email address and subscriber ID
- Tap “Accept” on the End User License Agreement
- Once you are successfully registered, you will see a confirmation screen with instructions for starting to access your JNN issues

I don't know my subscriber ID and I have not accessed the website jnnonline.com

- On your iPad home screen, open the JNN app from the icon
- You will see the message, “If you have already set up JNN for your iPad, simply tap “Sign In” above to start accessing your issues. Or, set up your account.”
- Tap the “Or, set up your account” link
- On the next screen, choose: I don't know my ID
- When you tap “I don't know my ID,” you will be prompted to enter your first and last name. A system lookup will be initiated, and if you are located as a valid member or subscriber, you will be prompted to go to the next step in registration
- Tap “Accept” on the End User License Agreement
- Once you are successfully registered, you will see a confirmation screen with instructions for starting to access your JNN issues
