CAMPAIGN POLICY

Information about each candidate will be published on the AANN website, AANN Facebook/Twitter or in the Neuroscience News, in support of the appointment process. Materials will be reproduced exactly from the application statements submitted by each candidate, except that AANN may remove material it deems outside the scope of the application or appointment process.

Beyond publication on the AANN website, AANN Facebook/Twitter or in the Neuroscience News, AANN does not permit any type of campaign activities, including but not limited to: distribution of literature (mailings, sign postings), public speeches, advertising, e-mails, social media posts, phone solicitation, articles or editorials in any publication (including chapter newsletters). Candidates can share/like appointment related posts from the AANN Facebook/Twitter account. If sharing posts, any comment made with it should be promoting the appointment process and not for one specific candidate. A candidate is assumed to be responsible for any campaign activity conducted directly or indirectly on her/his behalf.

1. All candidates for AANN office will receive the AANN Campaign Policy Form which includes the prohibition on campaigning. The form must be signed and returned to the AANN National Office.
2. Any questions regarding AANN appointments and practices should be directed to the Leadership Development Committee, in care of the AANN National Office staff. Reports of violations will be addressed on a case-by-case basis.
3. Any complaints about campaign practices must be communicated in writing and submitted to the Leadership Development Committee Chair in care of the AANN National Office. Email is considered an acceptable form of written communication. Anonymous complaints will not be accepted; however, names of individuals lodging complaints will be kept confidential by the Leadership Development Committee Chair to the extent the complainant's identity is not essential to the investigation of the facts. The Leadership Development Committee Chair will advise the Leadership Development Committee of the complaint, and the Leadership Development Committee may request additional information from the complainant as it deems necessary.
4. The candidate will be notified by the Leadership Development Committee Chair in writing (with proof of delivery) that a complaint has been lodged against him or her, and that an investigation will be conducted by the Leadership Development Committee. The candidate may be given details of the reasons for the complaint but will not be told the names of any individuals that lodged or confirmed the complaint, except to the extent their identities are essential to the investigation of the facts. The Leadership Development Chair will advise the candidate that any response to the charges should be submitted to the Committee in writing within 5 days of the candidate's receipt of written notice of the complaint. If the candidate does not submit a response, staff will advise the candidate in writing that he or she was given an opportunity to respond and no response was received.
5. The Chair will work with the Leadership Development Committee to investigate the claim, and then arrange a conference call meeting with the Committee to be held within 10 days of receiving the complaint, which time may be extended by the Chair if necessary, to complete the investigation. In investigating the claim, the Committee should, when possible, seek concrete evidence (emails, letters, etc.) supporting the complaint. If the campaign consists of phone calls, the Committee should seek corroboration from two or more members to verify the claim. The candidate has the burden to show whether the campaign activities were conducted without the candidate's knowledge or approval. If the Committee determines that a violation of the policy has occurred, the Committee may take any action it deems appropriate up to and including removing the candidate's name from the slate. The decision of the Leadership Development Committee will be final.

6. The Leadership Development Committee shall have the authority to remove a candidate from the slate as a result of violation of the above campaign guidelines. At the discretion of the Committee, candidates removed from a slate may not be eligible to participate in future AANN appointments.
7. The Chair will notify the AANN President and AANN Executive Director of the Committee's decision.
8. The Chair will notify the candidate of the Leadership Development Committee's decision in writing within 5 days of the Committee's decision. If the candidate requests to appeal an adverse decision, AANN will convene an ad hoc appeals panel to consider the appeal.

  - (d) Prior to authorizing or approving the transaction the board has considered and in good faith determined after reasonable investigation under the circumstances that AANN could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances.
