

EDUCATIONAL EVENTS

AANN AMPLIFY: A VIRTUAL SYMPOSIUM

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Neuroscience nurses at all levels, including students, and nurses interested in stroke topics

SESSIONS

Setting Priorities of Care for Stroke Patients
Neurocritical Care Nursing Challenges

VIRTUAL

THURSDAY

SEPTEMBER 10, 2026

Registration is open now!

Earn up to 4 CE contact hours!

INTERNATIONAL NEUROSCIENCE NURSING RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Neuroscience researchers, students conducting research, and nurses interested in new findings in the field

Earn up to 8 CE contact hours!

VIRTUAL

FRIDAY

JANUARY 29, 2027

Registration opens October 2026.

NEUROSCIENCE NURSING ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Uniting Expertise, Elevating Care

Neuroscience Nursing ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Uniting Expertise, Elevating Care

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Neuroscience nurses and those who care for neuroscience patients in their day-to-day practice, including advanced practice providers, stroke coordinators, students, those new to the field, and seasoned professionals

Earn up to 20 CE contact hours!

SEATTLE, WA

SATURDAY–TUESDAY

MARCH 13–16, 2027

Registration opens November 2026.

Save the Date!

Immerse yourself in cutting-edge neuroscience nursing education at the 2027 AANN Annual Conference in Seattle, WA. The conference has something for everyone, including advanced practice, stroke, and mixed neuro content, to elevate your expertise and energize your practice. Join colleagues from across the country for innovative education, meaningful connections, and inspiration that lasts long after you return home. Save the date—you won't want to miss it!

Learn more at
AANN.org/conferences

1061 American Lane, Suite 310
Schaumburg, IL 60173-4973

PRSR STD
US POSTAGE
PAID
SCHAUMBURG, IL
PERMIT NO. 271